

Example Itinerary aboard Nai'a

Sailing to Tintamarre and beyond

Day cruise

Guests will be picked up in Marigot at 9 a.m. unless otherwise decided.

We will set sail for Tintamarre (approx. 120 minutes) arriving around 11 a.m.

Anchoring in the bay, we will stay till 4 p.m. to catch the sunset cruise back to Marigot.

Guests will be taken to shore upon arrival, around 6:30 p.m.

$150/person with groups of 6 or less.

Lunch and nonalcoholic drinks will be provided.

Overnight cruise

For parties of 2: there is the option of staying overnight in Grand Case or Iles Fourche and getting two days on the island. For example: leave Marigot at 9 a.m. on Tuesday and return Wednesday by 3 p.m. Other times can be discussed.

We can provide all food and nonalcoholic drinks. Example menu below:

Lunch: Wraps and fruit. (wraps include hummus, spinach, cucumbers, beets and carrots)

Dinner: Cheese and meat board, wine, and chickpea salad (lettuce, chickpeas, feta, olives, tomatoes, cucumber)

Breakfast: Yogurt parfait with fruit

Lunch: Quesadilla (cheese, spinach and tomatoes) + salsa/chips

Snacks always, and lots of water!

Menus can be altered or guests can pack their own meals* which must be approved by us for sake of refrigerator room.

The overnight costs $450, this includes room and board, a day of sailing plus a return sail, food and drinks, crew fees and access to all of our water gear.

Contact information:

downtoberth.com

facebook.com/downtoberth

cpyne91@gmail.com

Nai'a is a 1977 CSY 44ft cutter. Two cabins, two heads (bathrooms), a shower, a galley (kitchen) and a dining area are all below deck. We have snorkelling gear, surf and paddle boards, and miscellaneous toys. Join us for a day, weekend or voyage! Downtoberth.com

